

Join us for an inspiring evening with leaders who are tackling today's toughest environmental challenges.

THE COURAGE TO LEAD

25TH
Anniversary Dinner

Tuesday, February 13, 2007 • 6:30-9:30pm • Cipriani 42nd Street • New York, NY

HONORING

■ Jeffrey R. Immelt is the Chairman and CEO of GE. Under his leadership, Fortune Magazine recognized GE as the most admired company in America in 2006. In 2005, GE launched Ecomagination, a business strategy created to help customers meet environmental challenges and improve operating performance.

■ Elizabeth J. McCormack and The John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation. Elizabeth McCormack is a former chair of The John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation and a long-time philanthropic advisor to members of the Rockefeller family. Before joining The MacArthur Foundation board she advised the board to launch WRI with a major grant. One of the nation's leading philanthropies, The MacArthur Foundation is dedicated to helping groups and individuals foster lasting improvement in the human condition.

■ The late Samuel C. Johnson was an environmental and business visionary. His leadership of SC Johnson was rooted in his personal belief that everyone has a responsibility to protect the planet and leave it a better place for the next generation. As a member of WRI's board of directors, his guidance enabled the organization to work more effectively with corporations, business schools, investors, and entrepreneurs to accelerate responsible changes in business practice.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

■ Thomas L. Friedman, a world-renowned author and journalist for the New York Times. A three-time Pulitzer Prize winner, he has traveled the world reporting on Middle East conflicts, the end of the cold war, U.S. domestic politics and foreign policy, climate change, international economics, and the worldwide impact of terrorism.
